

The island of Bohol lies between Cebu and Leyte. The province is predominantly agricultural and the capital, Tagbilaran, is steeped in history. Among the interesting places to visit on the island is the site of the blood pact between Spaniard Miguel Lopez de Legaspi and Bohol Chieftain Sikatuna which sealed their treaty of friendship.

The Chocolate Hills remain Bohol's major attraction. About an hour and 45 minutes ride from Tagbilaran, this area consists of over a thousand haycock hills that look like giant scoops of chocolate dropped in the center of the island.

Bohol is home to the world's smallest monkey, the Tarsier. Bohol is a picturesque province replete with ancestral homes and centuries-old churches.
